

Replaces all previous versions

Limit Switches

Prevent costly damage to your racks with Limit Switches.

Limit Switches can be attached to the PLC, warning light, or a traffic gate.

This simple, yet effective, device warns operators that the gangway is out of the stored locked position, preventing drive-offs with the equipment down on vehicles and damage during rail switches.

All prices/specifications subject to change without notice.